Price List of

Gladiolus Bulbs

for 1930-1931

One of the hardest things I have to do each fall, is to "boil down" the many things that I would like to say to my regular and prospective customers to fit the available space. I can truly say this season that my glads have never looked better in the field, and I look forward to having some very fine stock. Many varieties which have been held at rather high prices are sharply reduced, and will now be available to those who have wanted them but have not felt disposed to pay the prices at which they were held. The novelties and the newer sorts are always a temptation and a source of pleasure to me and, I presume, to all real "glad fans". However, they are not necessary unless you feel that you can afford them, as there are hundreds of very beautiful varieties now available at extremely modest prices. There are quantities of blossoms in my home throughout the season, and I believe this summer the favorites have been Golden Dream, Gold Eagle, Helen Howard, Mrs. F. C. Peters, High Nye, Allen V. Bunce, Golden Frills, and the pinks, such as Nixie, Los Angeles, Longfellow, etc., so that, with many of the high priced novelties available, they have not had the "call" for indoor decoration. We enjoyed Krimhilde in the early season. It was first to bloom and by cutting when first blossom was open we had many spikes of very clear and beautiful flowers. This variety is inclined to streak when it opens in hot sun, though it is always good.

Am not going to take much space to praise the quality of my stock. Have suffered some bitter disappointments by depending too much on such statements in catalogues, so am going to follow my practice of letting my customers do this. They have no bulbs to sell you, but perhaps they will sell you some of mine. Please read these letters on last page of this list.

OREGON GROWN BULBS

I do not claim to have the only good glad bulbs, nor that all of the good ones are grown in Oregon, but it is a well established and widely known fact that the North Pacific Coast is best adapted to the production of fine bulbs of any region in the United States.

I do claim to use every care to have my stock clean, healthy and true to name, and every bulb which does not appear to be in perfect condition is promptly destroyed. As an extra precaution, all of my planting stock this year was treated with Semesan.

GUARANTEE

Every bulb and bulblet is fully guaranteed to be free from disease, true to name and satisfactory to the customer in every way, and all or any part of any order may be returned to me, and I will promptly and cheerfully refund purchase price, plus return charges.

If any of my stock proves untrue to name, I will replace it with liberal overcount or will refund purchase price, or allow liberal credit to apply on other varieties or make any reasonable adjustment that the customer may suggest.

Safe delivery of all orders is guaranteed. This includes damage by freezing, so you need not hesitate to order in fall or winter. I will not forward shipments by mail unless weather is such that I feel they can go through to destination safely.

TERMS

Terms are cash with order except that, if desired, a deposit of 25% will hold order until March 1st, when it will be sent C.O.D. for any amount remaining unpaid at that time.

Charges will be prepaid on all shipments to points in United States and Canada.

DISCOUNT

Will allow cash discount of 5% on orders of $25.00 to $50.00; 10% on orders of $50.00 or more. I will also give liberal overcount and extras on all orders, so that my customers will receive the discount in the way of extra bulbs, which is offered in many lists, and the cash discount in addition.

If you contemplate placing a large order, please submit list for special quotation.

PRICES

The prices quoted in this list I believe to be very reasonable, and no more than fair value, but I shall watch other lists carefully and see that any lower prices which may be quoted by other growers on any variety are more than met by extra liberality in count. My regular customers know this from experience.

SUBSTITUTION

If out of any size ordered, I will substitute the next size smaller, giving overcount to more than cover difference in price. If unwilling for me to do this, please so state in your order.

I will not substitute in varieties without permission. If you are willing to have me send a substitute in case I am out of any variety ordered, please say so. You may be sure that you will receive something of greater value.

EARLY ORDERS

Early orders are entirely practical and sensible. They insure your receiving the varieties and sizes you want, and they also secure for you the "pick of the crop". Some varieties are still rather scarce, and may be hard to find late in the season.

SIZES

Of most varieties, even the smallest bulbs will give a fairly good spike, and sizes 5 and 6 are more economical to buy and better than a real large bulb for the purpose of increasing stock. Sizes 3 and 4 will give a very satisfactory spike, and often two, and are also much better than large bulbs for propagation. The large bulbs are most satisfactory for exhibition purposes, and will ordinarily yield two or more fine spikes. The purpose for which you desire the bulbs and the price you are willing to pay should be your guide in ordering.

The bulbs listed as "Large", "Medium" and "Small" are varieties of which I cannot at this time accurately judge just what sizes I will have. Many of the large size will run $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches and over, the medium will be the full size promised or larger, and the small size will average about $\frac{1}{2}$ inch, some a little under, but mostly $\frac{1}{2}$ inch or more.

HOW TO ORDER

Please note carefully whether the variety is priced "each", "per dozen" or "per 100". Ten bulbs or 25 bulblets at the 100 price; 100 bulblets at the 1000 price. For a less number, add 10%. Three or 6 may be ordered at the dozen price. Single bulbs or bulblets at one-tenth of the dozen price. One thousand bulbs of a variety at nine times the 100 price; 250 will be supplied at this rate. No single item less than 10 cents.
